PUBLIC LANDS OPEN TO ENTRY

Large Tracts in This and Neighboring States Made Available

Washington, Feb. 22.—Secretary Franklin K. Lane has issued an order which throws open to entry 140,000 acres of land in Cache, Rich, Utah, Beaver and Iron counties under the enlarged homestead act. The land is classed by the department of the interior as nonirrigable. The order fixes April 15 as the date when filings will be accepted on this land.

In addition to opening land for entry in Utah, large tracts of land in Idaho, Montana and Wyoming have been classed as nonirrigable by the department and may be entered under the enlarged homestead act.

In Montana more than 500,000 acres have been so classified and in Idaho 100,000 acres have been thrown open.

The land available for entry under the 320 acre act and the dates when the order will be effective are as follows:

Nearly 100,000 acres in Idaho, principally in Lincoln, Cassia, Power, Bear Lake, Ada, Elmore, Twin Falls and Fremont counties, effective March 10.

More than 430,000 acres throughout Wyoming under order effective March 10, and more than 70,000 acres in Wyoming under order effective April 10.

More than 140,000 acres in Utah, in Cache, Rich, Utah, Beaver and Iron counties, order effective April 10.

Secretary Lane has recommended to the President the restoration of 441,225 acres of withdrawn land in Montana. Part of the land, 20,771 acres is in the northeastern part of the state and has been classified as coal land. The remainder, which comprises 420,454 acres in the eastern part of Custer county, was examined by a geologist of the geological survey during the past field season and has been classified as non-

CHANGE IOWA'S GOVERNMENT?

Radical Reforms Urged in Eight Bills Drafted by Investigating Body

Des Moines, Iowa, Feb. 23.—Radical changes in the system of state government and plans for greater economy and efficiency are suggested in eight bills and two joint resolutions submitted today by the reformation and reform committee of the thirty-fifth general assembly.

The bills are the result of an investigation lasting for nearly two years.

The most important measure offered provides an executive cabinet for the governor to replace the present executive council. It takes executive authority from the secretary of state, state treasurer, and auditor of the state, and vests it in three men appointed by the governor. These three men are to be the heads of as many departments.

The object of the measure is eventually to make the secretary of state, treasurer, and auditor appointive.

The Proposed Departments

The three departments and the principal activities coming under each are as follows:

Social progress—Public instruction, boards of control, parole and education, state library, geological survey, and others.

Industries—Agriculture, state veterinarian, railroad commission, industrial and insurance commission—bank examiners, etc.

Public safety—Attorney general, adjutant general, highway commissioner, all examination boards, fish and game warden, capitol extension, dairy and food commission, etc.

A budget system of state finance is another feature of the new plan, as proposed.

The house passed the bill to appropriate $52,000 to pay farmers whose stock was killed to prevent the foot and mouth disease.

PROPOSES, MURDERS, COMMITS SUICIDE

T. W. R. Nelson of Rupert, Idaho, Kills Woman and Then Takes His Own Life

Rupert, Idaho, Feb. 23.—A double tragedy that has shocked the community occurred last night at Minidoka, a small village some fifteen miles from Rupert, when T. W. R. Nelson, a prominent and wealthy merchant of Rupert shot and killed Mrs. Nellie M. Pittenger, also of Rupert, afterwards turning the gun on himself with fatal effect. Mrs. Pittenger, who conducted a boarding house here, also owned a dry farm near Minidoka, cornering in Kimani and had reached Minidoka on her way home from a visit to the ranch. Learning of her return, Nelson boarded the evening train from Rupert and went to Minidoka to meet her and find her at the hotel.

A coroner's inquest was held this morning. The principal witness at the inquest was Mrs. Edna Hunter, a sister of the murdered woman, who was present when the shooting was done. She testified that Nelson followed her sister upstairs and that she had remained in the room, realizing that Nelson had a gun and had been drinking. Nelson asked Mrs. Pittenger: "Are you going to marry me?" She said, "No, I wouldn't marry the best man that ever walked." At this Nelson reached into his hip pocket for his revolver and shot Mrs. Pittenger in the chest. Mrs. Hunter testified that she secured a gun she had in her pocketbook and fired at Nelson in defense of her sister. Then Nelson turned the gun upon himself and fired two shots, one reaching the brain and killing him instantly.

Nelson was about 62 years of age, with a large family of grown children. He owned a large hardware and furniture store in Rupert and another in Pearl. He was interested in two banks in Utah and other enterprises. He has always been regarded as a level headed business man and was highly respected.

ARRESTS CHIEF DEPUTY

Charge of Embezzlement Preferred Against Assistant by Game Warden of Idaho

Boise, Idaho, Feb. 22.—Charged with embezzlement of state funds to the amount of $500 A. A. Harris, chief deputy game warden under former Wardens Barber and Gowan, was placed under arrest today. The complaint against him was brought by the present game warden L. R. Jones.

Jones charges Harris has failed to turn over funds received from sale of hunting licenses. The present warden took over the office January 20 and says the shortage was discovered at that time, but no immediate action was taken because Harris assured him he would be able to make proper returns as soon as he received collections from licenses on sale at various points in the state.

"I have eighty different accounts of licenses placed on sale, said Harris, and many of them have not yet made returns. Some of these accounts are outside of the state with firms in Montana, Utah and Oregon. They have received licenses, but have not turned in for those sold. As soon as the returns are made to me I will make my returns to the department and show that everything is correct.

Governor Alexander will Tuesday appoint as members of the state live stock board Daniel G. Ruby, Caldwell; Thomas E. Ricks, Rexburg; G. W. Wedgewood, Gooding, each for a term of two years from January 9, 1915; Arthur Pence, Hot Springs, term of two years from February 23, 1915; William Winschell, Soda Springs, and James B. Hitt, each for a term of one year from February 23, 1915.

JUDGE DAYTON DENIES CHARGE

Washington, Feb. 22.—Emphatic denial of impeachment charges pending against him was made today by Federal Judge A. G. Dayton of West Virginia before the investigating sub committee of the House judiciary committee.

The judge dwelt upon the attitude of the United Mine Workers of America toward him, referring to cases in which he decided against that organization, and declaring that he simply carried out the law without any prejudice against union labor.

He said he had in no way sought to displace Judge John H. Jackson, his predecessor on the bench, and specifically denied that he had joined in a campaign with Baltimore & Ohio railroad officials to force Judge Jackson's resignation or impeachment. A letter was put in evidence from former President Roosevelt, dated May 26, 1914, in which it was stated that he instituted an investigation of Judge Jackson on his own responsibility and appointed Judge Dayton without solicitation from any one.
